

THE APEIRON SOCIETY FOR THE PRACTICE OF PHILOSOPHY

This is the Society's 30th year of philosophical seminars and discussion. All who are interested in the practice of philosophy in everyday life are welcome.

Program for the Fall of 2016

This year's theme is: “Dialogue and Diversity”

September 13	2016 AGM followed by a Social
September 27	Janet Sisson – Vice President, Apeiron Society “Dialogue and Diversity: some reflections”
October 11	David Swann – Liberal MLA for Calgary Mountain View Title to be announced
October 25	Patricia Pardo – Director, Accessibility Services, Mount Royal University “Academic Accommodations for post-secondary students experiencing disabilities”
November 8	Tamara P. Seiler – Canadian Studies, University of Calgary “Multiculturalism, Canadian Literature and the Decolonization of Canada's National Imaginary”
November 22	Two presentations by Ph.D. Students, Philosophy, University of Calgary)

=+=+=+=+=+=

Meetings	7:30 pm, at the Scandinavian Centre, 739-20th Ave. N.W.
Membership	Annual membership: $50.00	Annual membership—students and seniors 65 & over: $40.00
Entrance fee	Members Free	Non-members: $10.00, Students $5.00
Contacts and information	www.ApeironSociety.org	Dr. Janet Sisson jdsisson@nucleus.com